

Roads to Wellbeing: Home edition

LEARN

Open Learn

Open learn (part of Open University) offers around 1000 free online courses

<https://www.open.edu/openlearn/>

01

Why not try

Level 1 Introducing Philosophy
Level 2 French Revolution
Level 1 Start writing fiction
Level 2 Exploring issues in women's health

E-Books

There are lots of great free ways to read or listen to books from home.

02

Why not try

Libraries If you have library card you can use it to download free e-books and audio books from home
Amazon Prime Customers have free access to 100's of books through the Kindle App.

Learn a Language

Take the time to prepare for a future adventure by learning a new language.

03

Why not try

Duo lingo Pick from over 30 languages on this free app.

<https://www.duolingo.com/>

Take a virtual tour

With lots of public places now closed there are ways to still visit from the comfort of your home.

04

Why not try

<https://britishmuseum.withgoogle.com/>
<https://thedali.org/virtual-tour/>
<https://spacecenter.org/app/>

Educational Material

With many children now being home schooled there are lots of great free resources now available for children and parents.

05

Why not try

Audible Stories offering free stories for young people to stream
<https://stories.audible.com/>

Twinkl - Instant access to inspirational lesson plans, schemes of work, assessment, interactive activities, resource packs, PowerPoints, teaching ideas
<https://www.twinkl.com.au/search>

