

Roads to Wellbeing: Home edition

Give

It is important when volunteering that you do not put yourself at unnecessary risk, and that you maintain social distancing and government guidance throughout

COVID Mutual Aid

<https://covidmutualaid.org>

Groups are springing up to support older people, those with existing health issues and the self-isolating.

01

Why not try

For RBKC click here

For Westminster click here

For LBHF click Here

RBKC Volunteer Bureau

Anything you can do to make things a little less stressful for others during the Coronavirus outbreak can go a long way, especially for those in high-risk groups.

02

Why not try

Volunteer Centre Kensington & Chelsea is coordinating the community response to the crisis. You can register your interest and availability to volunteer within RBKC here

WCC Volunteer Bureau

Westminster City Council is coordinating different volunteers forces to help during the COVID19 crisis.

03

Why not try

Click here to register your interest

H&F Volunteer Bureau

For information from H&F Volunteer bureau visit

<http://hfvc.org.uk/>

04

Why not try

H&F have created a good Neighbour guide which you can access by clicking here

Volunteer from Home

The new and improved Do It volunteering website offers lots of ways that you can support your local community during this time including ways that you can volunteer from home

05

Why not try

Have a look at the website for ideas of how you can help either in the community or from home

Click here for more information

It is important when volunteering that you do not put yourself at unnecessary risk, and that you maintain social distancing and government guidance throughout